Headline:
Sunny or clear spells and scattered wintry showers. Cold.

Today:
Most parts seeing some sunshine but also wintry showers in the west and north. Showers widely of snow inland in the north, and across hills in central areas. By evening showery rain and hill snow likely in the southwest. Cold.

Tonight:
Wintry showers and clear spells for northern and western areas, with patchy fresh snowfall and ice. In the south, rain or snow clearing, some frost and fog later.

Saturday:
Low cloud and fog in the south perhaps slow to clear but then some sunshine for most. Continuing risk of wintry showers, mainly in the west and north. Cold.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Cold start. Sunny spells and wintry showers, and some longer spells of rain or snow in the south on Sunday. Rain arriving across most areas on Tuesday, but turning milder.
